

Benjamin Rue

Benjamin Rue is currently LLM candidate at the University of Nottingham School of Law. Benjamin was previously Conduct and Discipline Officer at the United Nations Mission for Justice Support in Haiti (MINUJUSTH 2017-2018), Special Assistant to the Police Commissioner at the UN Multidimensional Integrated Stabilization Mission in the Central African Republic (MINUSCA 2017) and Associate Conduct and Discipline Officer at the UN Stabilization Mission in Haiti (MINUSTAH 2013-2017).

Before joining peacekeeping missions, Benjamin worked at the International Labour Organization (ILO Geneva 2012-2013), first with the Human Resources Department (HRD) and then with the Partnerships and Field Support Department (PARDEV). He started his career in the French Army (2005-2010).

Benjamin graduated from the Catholic University of Lille, Faculty of Law (Maîtrise en droit privé) and the University of St-Andrews in Scotland (M.Litt.).