

George E. Scheibner Mesas

Mr. Scheibner is a seasoned change management and organizational development expert with more than twenty years of global experience with private and public international organizations. His extensive field and United Nations experience includes stints with the UN System Staff College (2004-2006), the Integrated Training Service of DPKO/DFS and Office of Rule of Law and Security Institutions (2011-2013), where facilitates the development and implementation of training programmes in coaching and mentoring for Police, Justice and Corrections and the facilitation of retreats, and as Chief Training Officer, Conduct & Discipline Officer, and Senior Mission Support Officer in deep field locations with the UN Mission in Haiti (MINUSTAH, 2008-2011), and with the African Union-United Nations Mission in Darfur (UNAMID, 2013-2018).

George is a Certified Training Professional and facilitator of Competency Based Interviewing Skills and Performance Management, and has led a wide range of operational, administrative and logistical functions as well as human, and financial resources in the deep field. In his capacity he has provided strategic guidance and policy advise to Senior Mission Leaders and services to peacekeeping personnel and representatives of the UNCT and the state and local government.

Mr. Scheibner extensive academic qualifications include a BA in International Relations from San Francisco State University (1988) magna cum laude , a MA in Middle East Studies from The American University in Cairo (1990), and a MBA in International Management from the Thunderbird School of Global Management (1997). He is a holder of the Diploma in Human Resources Management from ECornell (2012). A native of Barcelona, Spain, Mr Scheibner is a genuine polyglot with certified proficiency in Arabic, English, French, and his native Spanish and Catalan.